

Duerr's Paralympians Update 07/09/12

The last few days have been fantastic for Tom Young, and yesterday he finished in a valiant 6th place in the S8 100M freestyle, his fourth and final event. Our congratulations go to him, not only for this race, but his strong performance throughout these games. We hope that he now enjoys some well earned rest.

Tomorrow will see Natalie Jones's final race, she'll compete in the heats for the 50M butterfly S6, and then hopefully on to the final! We'll be rooting for you Natalie!
