Other quirky ideas you had included:

- Putting a raw garlic clove inside an empty jam jar and shaking it to peel it.
- Re-using the jam jars for your own homemade batch!
- Storing loose change.
- Decorating them and using them as candle holders.
- Re-using them for homemade pasta sauces.
- Turning one into a pencil jar for the desk!
- Using them to store sweets.
- Making homemade chocolates and storing them inside to give as gifts.

Keep your ideas coming in, we'd love to hear them!
